MEDINIAN

Medina, Ohio

1957

M. A. in Administration

Welcome to our new senior high school. We are so proud of our million-dollar building and so happy to have a student body and faculty that mean even more to us, that we simply can't keep them for ourselves alone. We take pleasure in presenting our students and personnel at work and at ease in the pleasant atmosphere of Medina's new educational landmark.

Superintendent

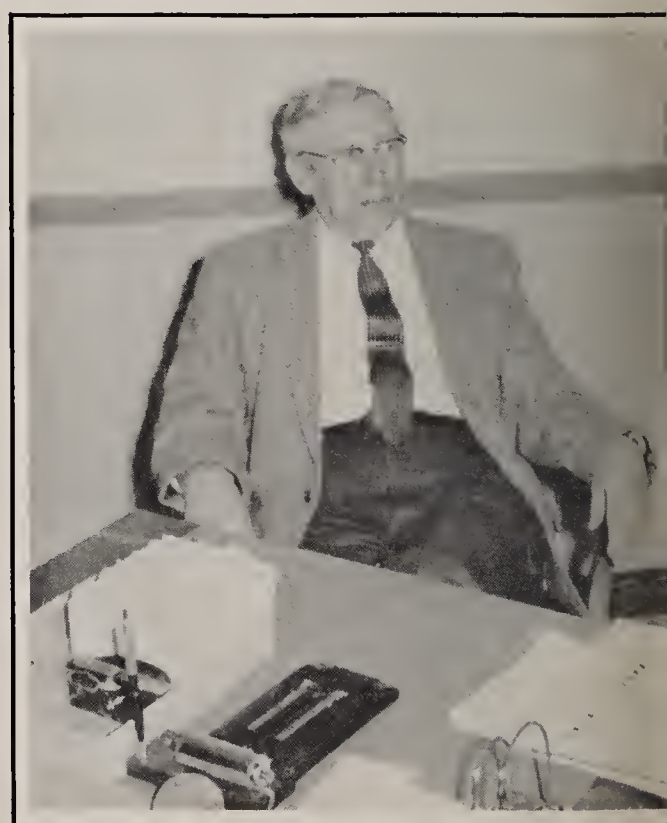

Sidney M. Fenn

"Educational landmark" is right. It has been a pleasure for me to personally conduct dozens of visitors through our school, and I take pride in explaining to outsiders how provident our taxpayers have been, and how fortunate we are to have a board of education that has been so visionary yet immediately practical to give us this school.

Now, with the help of the MEDINIAN staff, allow me to show you around the new building. Meeting here monthly or oftener is our Board of Education whom you shall meet first. Then the MEDINIAN staff will present the faculty, students, and activities.

Board Of Education

Maurice Patry

Edwin Morse

Elmer Nichols—President

Boyd Davenport—Clerk

This public-spirited board of education has guided to completion the erection of the school plant that was envisioned by it and our administration. Proper recognition must also be awarded to Earle Gibbs, Henry Larabee, Harold Waite, Dr. Fred Fri, and Harold Williams who served on the board at the time this site was purchased.

Scores of meetings were held and visitations to new schools were made as these gentlemen studied our needs and how to meet them. As the new building blossomed on the drawing board, tax levies were passed and contracts awarded.

We know a good thing when we see it; and we see two things: a beautiful building of over a million cubic feet, and a conscientious board—each member having two feet, and standing on them. They have demonstrated convincingly that they are not only interested in beauty and comfort but also in our teachers' welfare and our educational development.

The setting for this pictorial story of community spirit and vision was a grass-covered field of Medina.

The property was purchased for an eventual high school, but was used for several years as a parking area and Little League baseball field.

In June of 1955 the work of building a new school was begun. The cooperation of planners, builders, and weather rapidly brought to reality the dream of an adequate, modern educational building.

On November 4th open house gave our community an opportunity to see the climax of the story that started with a dream and a grass-covered field.

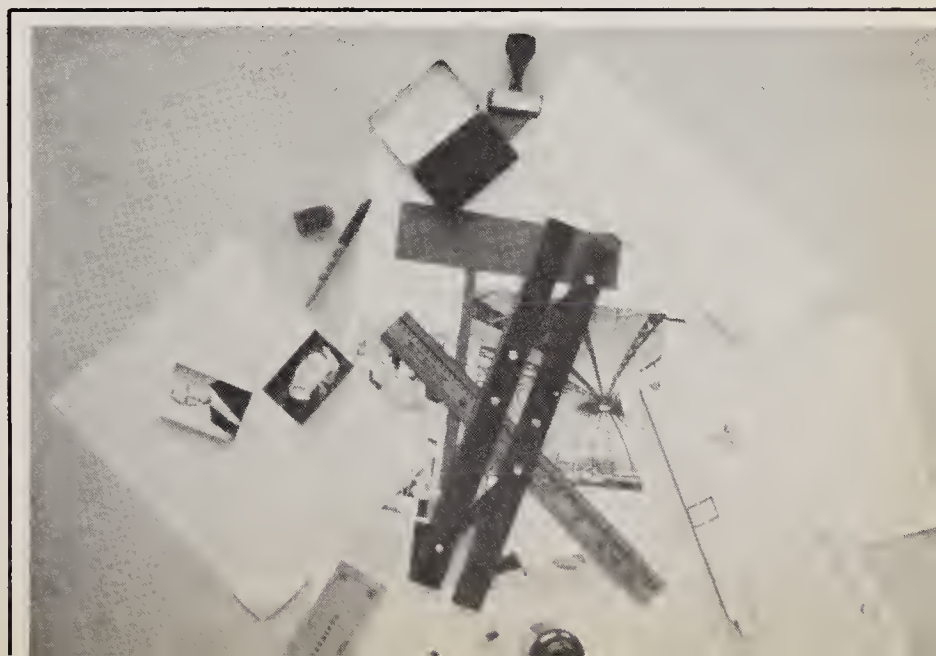

FRONT ROW—Carol Eckert, Judy Harper, Muffi McDowell, Colleen Hill, Diana Cowling, Beth Strong, Sandra Stelzer, and Jeanne Barr.
 SECOND ROW—Susie Twigg, Pat Thomas, Linda Taggart, Marilyn Edwards, Carol Popiel, Brinca Patton, Gloria Hartzell, Sandra Siegfried, and Herbert Demuth, faculty advisor.
 THIRD ROW—Gary Chirdon, Roger Linn, Dick Lantry, Dave Bolton, Dick Dirham, and Jon Figland.

Like our new building, our MEDINIAN requires much planning and hard work to obtain the beautifully finished product which we have anticipated.

This year the yearbook staff had a regular class period in which to work on the Annual. However this does not mean that there was no work for the staff members after school hours.

For the first time, also, the Annual staff enjoyed the privilege of having its own workshop in which to assemble its work.

We are proud to introduce our faculty, other school employees, and each of our students. Now may we present . . .

As we view the pictures of our faculty let us consider the fact that over one third of these teachers have their Masters degree, and the rest are teaching equally well by taking advantage of their experience.

They do their jobs well: so should we!

For the sake of variety we are arranging our teachers according to years of service at Medina.

Good Afternoon — Medina High School . . .

MARLENE LEISTER

PHYLLIS DAYSON

As you walk through our office wing or call the school you will be cordially greeted by one of our efficient secretaries.

Mrs. Leister has been Mr. Fenn's capable secretary for six years, but is resigning to devote full time to the job of homemaking. We know that she will be as successful and happy in her home as she has been here.

Helping Mr. Haas with his financial and student accounting is Mrs. Dayson who has been a pleasing addition to our secretarial staff this year. We hope that she enjoys her stay with us as much as we enjoy her presence.

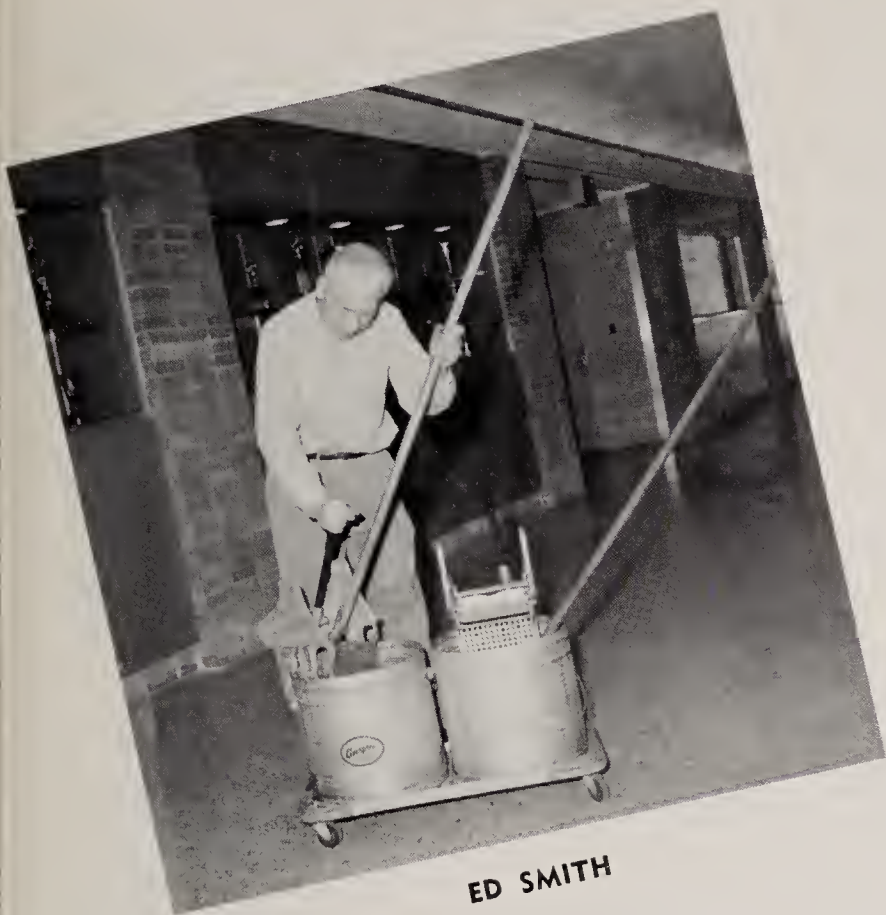

What's Cooking?

The cafeteria staff, under the direction of Mrs. Gienke, is enjoying the modern conveniences of our scientifically designed kitchen; and the two hundred fifty regular customers give evidence of the fine quality of meals served by the ladies.

COOKS: Mrs. Gienke, Mrs. Jacot, Mrs. Rickert, Mrs. Wo

Cleanliness is Next to Godliness . . .

ED SMITH

JAY LASH

All who visit or attend our new school agree that it is colossal. Its million cubic feet of volume is bounded by over two thousand windows and twenty-seven grade-level doors, and its floor space is an attractive seventy thousand square feet.

To preserve the investment and the beauty of this building and to maintain proper health conditions our Board employs this capable staff of custodians. Their job is as big as the building and they are doing their work well.

Now this won't hurt

And in this corner, the winner

Sure we have students at our school—375. Ten buses transport them from outlying districts; private cars, motor bikes, and bicycles help some get here; while many are within walking distance.

Our Board-owned buses are manned by John Hyatt, Ralph Waite, Wayne Crum, Charles Jacot, David King, Dick Gensemer, Charles Mumaw, and Albert Hood; and buses from Chatham and Lafayette are driven by Mac Whitman and Louie Farnsworth.

Thanks to the character of our students, our attendance officer, Wayne Crum, has had a fairly easy job here; but a few "scoundrels" manage to spoil his day occasionally.

It takes all sorts of transportation and people to get us assembled and when we look around we see that there are different classes of us. Would you like to meet our seniors?

Expect us to Walk?

The Seniors had many activities this year. One of the many projects was selling magazine subscriptions. They also sold Christmas cards, pen sets, and candy. Three very successful dinners were served to swell the treasury of the class and to give personal credit to the working members.

The big event of the year was the Senior trip to New York. The excited class left Akron on Easter and arrived in New York, after a hilarious Erie train ride, ready for a week of thrills and fun. Tours were made of Chinatown, the Stock Exchange, Rockefeller Center, and the United Nations.

Memories of stage shows, Cinerama, television and radio studios, movies, shopping, subways, and restaurants will remain as long as the visitors—and perhaps the New Yorkers—live.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Claggett, Mr. Dague, Mr. and Mrs. Demuth, Mrs. Ainsworth, and Mrs. Heiges.

The Junior Class, under the leadership of president Butch Spitzer, sponsored many worthwhile and profitable activities.

The class' first project was the selling of mums for the annual homecoming celebration. This project was no sooner completed than the class began selling tickets for the pancake supper held on October 26 in the school cafeteria.

The operation of the "Snack Bar" at noontime and at home basketball games also boosted the class treasury.

As a climax to a busy year the class sponsored the Junior Senior Banquet and Prom. This gala affair was held May 3 at the Woman's City Club in Akron.

How do you like the tour of our new building? We've met the faculty and students and have had a few glimpses of school life, but we haven't seen anything yet!

Top-notch musical and dramatic organizations, athletic teams, clubs, dances . . . I always get "carried away" like this.

But what are we waiting for? Let's move along and see for ourselves.

FIRST ROW—Normon Goulding, Bob Swingle, Tom Tubbs, Tom Plonts, Jim Wells, Jon Figlond, Bill Whitney, Brent Dudos, Jerry Losh, John Gilbert, Jerry Condren, and Bob Coskey, Monoger.

On August 20 forty-five boys turned out for Medina's Varsity football team. Good weather and excellent attendance encouraged the team to keep fighting against odds; but the season was nothing "to write home about."

We expect to have better teams in the future due to the experience our reserve team received this season.

Dear Boosters Club:
 We wish to thank you for providing us with new uniforms for the season. We may not have had the best record, but we were the best dressed!

Homecoming

A roaring bonfire at the athletic field on the eve of homecoming shed light on an army of football rooters determined to fire up such heated enthusiasm that our squad would burn up the gridiron the next evening.

Queen Joni Anderson and her attendants, Sharon Miller and Joleen Fodor, reigned in regal splendor at the game; but after the smoke of battle had cleared, it was plain that it takes more than enthusiasm and royalty to win football games.

The homecoming dance that followed in the school cafeteria eased the sting of defeat, however. To the near-professional music of the Stardusters, Medina High School students of past and present enjoyed an evening of dancing, under the spell of our Queen and her court.

Four pretty and athletic Varsity Cheerleaders have cheered for both the Varsity Football and the Varsity Basketball squads this year. They have given the boys plenty of support and boosted their morale tremendously. These four cheerleaders are seniors Joni Anderson and Sharon Miller, Pat Tiffner, a junior, and Joanne Bushman, a sophomore.

For the first time in many years Medina also had male Varsity Cheerleaders. The two handsome and agile men were John Alden and Charles Ptak who have done a superior job, and have been hailed by student body and team alike.

The Reserve Basketball squad had five vivacious cheerleaders to boost their spirits. They are Janice Fodor, Barb Standen, Alice White, Judy Dye, and Ales Jo D'Amico.

Varsity Basketball

Medina had a great group of boys on its basketball team this year, although they didn't do too well. Medina won only two games of the eighteen starts they made. The team was out there trying at every game. The lack of height was the main downfall. In practice they were kept in shape by their coach Augie Rios, who was just as disappointed as the boys with the season. The team coming up next year looks good if it gets a little height.

Reserve Basketball

SECOND ROW—Ben Baldwin, Norm Goulding, Ken Kraus, Roger Canfield, Jerry Condren, Larry Blewitt, Paul Bricker, Karl Hamrick, Coach Scrivens.

A lighter moment

You don't say

Dear Teacher,

I do not have my report card because my mother and dad went to [redacted] with my report card. This is how it happened:

I lost my report card when I took it home. Then I could not find it for a long time. My mother kept yelling at me because she thought I had bad grades, and she thought I didn't want her to see it.

Then I found it under my bed and showed my mother, ... so she brought me to school... and I left it in the car ... and Mom and Dad went to [redacted] with my card.

They won't be back until Sunday and then I will bring it in. I will never do this again for a long time....

Robert Mast—I leave my F. F. A. speaking ability to any future F. F. A. members.

Sam McEwen—I will my football ability to Bob Swingle.

Barbara McGuire—I give my short hand book to anyone who wants it.

Rosalie McMillan—I will my ability to talk too much to Linda Kolb.

Sharon Miller—I will my cheering ability to anyone who can work.

Ben Mitchell—I will my position as Executive Editor of the Medinamite, to anyone who can make a better mess of it than I did.

Jim Neumeyer—I will my love of talking to Marcene Ewing.

Bob Pacholski—I will my ability of being a good football player to Dave Holt because he'll need it.

Dave Pastor—I leave my motorcycle to anyone who wants it.

Bob Phillip—I will my shyness to Pete Schrier.

Elaine Preisler—I will my ability to drive with or without brakes to Tom Hodges.

Neil Preisler—I will my seat in Family Living to anyone who likes to sit next to the door.

Charles Ptak—I will my cheering ability to Terry Chirdon.

Judy Rabe—I will the honor of being a senior to any junior.

Eleanor Riffner—I will all my hours of shorthand practice to Sandy Siegfried and my seat in choir to Kay Whisler.

Lyle Roberts—I leave the teachers to anyone who wants them.

Roger Roshon—I leave my job at the A&P to Larry Blewitt.

Bob Schelkle—I will my mechanical drawing pencil to Mr. Linn.

Toby Schlechty—I will my haircut to Charles Hood.

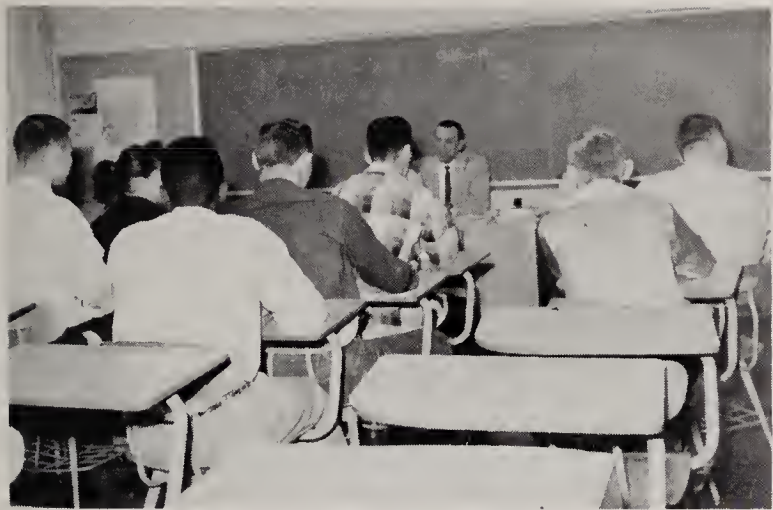

Ed Seibert—I will my safe driving to anyone who needs it.

Carole Smith—To any senior, I leave my seat in some room.

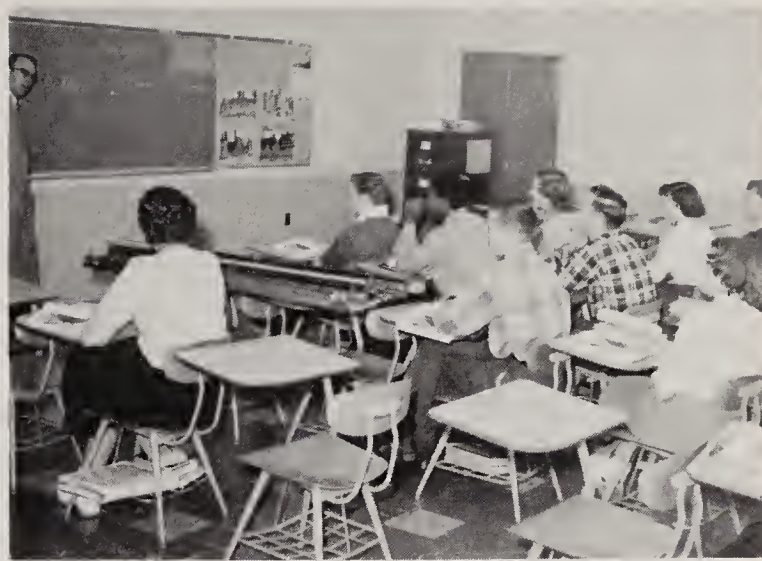

Beverly Snanigan—I will five inches of my height to all the boys whom I wish were taller.

Louise Spaulding—I will the same wonderful way of life that I have found in accepting the Lord, Jesus Christ into my heart and having Him as my guide each day to anybody who thinks they don't have to know God this personally.

Senior Will

Kathy Sprankle—To Sandy Siegfried, I leave all my work in Secretarial Practice.

Beth Strong—To Jani Fodor, I will my ability to read books, chew gum, and talk during choir, without getting caught.

Ed Stuczynski—I will my ability to work with cows to Bob Armbruster.

Rosalie Takacs—Best wishes to the seniors of 1958.

Joyce Talbott—I will my inability to think of anything to put into the class will to Ales D'Amico.

Paul Szaniszlo—To Dick Simmons and Pete Schrier I will my track wind that never was mixed with cigarette smoke.

Mike Thiele—To Norm Goulding, I leave the ability to shoot jump shots, and to stay out of trouble.

Sardis Titley—I will my sense of humor to Bill Maple, and my math ability to Pat Frederick.

Sandi Tripp—I will to Ales D'Amico my ability to miss school, and still have a slight chance of graduating.

Paul Tucker—I will my appetite to Mrs. Gienke's prize gluttons.

Barbara Wagner—I will my seat in Mr. Scrivens' civics class to some poor junior.

Nancy Wass—To anyone whose name starts with "W", I give my seat in home room.

Karl Webel—I will my position on the basketball team to Charley Fisher.

Vern Westfall—I will my laziness and ability to sleep in class to Brent Dudas.

Linda White—To Barb Standen, I leave my hot-rodding ability.

Dick Wolfe—I leave my job at the A&P to anyone who wants it.

Leah Wright—I will all my money to Mr. Scrivens.

Kurt Yeager—I will nothing to no one.

Jack Yost—I will to Jim Wells, all the fun I had on the football and basketball teams.

John Ziegler—To Tom Holden, I will my ability to get along in Civics Class.

The band marched into the hearts of our football fans again this fall as it continued to present colorful shows of a professional level. A special honor was bestowed by Ashland College when it invited our band to perform on its campus for its homecoming game.

Waiting for the downbeat, we see the Concert Band below, as it presented its annual winter concert—a two-night billing at the Junior High Auditorium.

Beverly Carter, Diane Wilson, Mr. Stacy, Leon Patry, Marcia Englert, and Karen Simon.
 SECOND ROW: Roger Canfield, Franchot Ballinger, Steve Demuth, Warren Breese, Jean Graff, Linn Carter, and Bob Warner.

Sweet or torrid—you name it—are appropriate for the numbers this group presents for the dancing pleasure of the students here. After-game dances and several other billings in the area have kept this group pleasantly occupied throughout the school year.

The Concert Orchestra, below, fills a need of both students and the public who enjoy the strings and symphonic atmosphere. These students made appearances at the spring concert and at Commencement.

Choir

Vocal music is enjoyed by Medina High students as it is the world around. Mrs. Fenn has no difficulty getting results from our choir, but rather has difficulty in stopping the vocalizing as the members leave her room for other classes.

Choralettes

Joleen Fodor, Linda White, Susie Twigg, Ann Gilsdorf, and Karen Simon, accompanist.
SECOND ROW: Sharon Miller, Nora Frederick, Marcia Englert, and Nancy Wass.
ABSENT FROM PICTURE: Mary Davenport and Louise Spaulding.

Close harmony and precision-plus are demonstrated by these two special groups—the Girls' Glee Club and Choralettes. These organizations were available for public appearances and enjoyed several bookings.

Girls' Glee Club

Norma Snyder, Beverly Wilson, Thelma Haddox, Deborah Dowdell.
SECOND ROW: Janet Johnson, Becky Thomas, Priscilla Scott, Martha Gillis, Sandy Stelzer, Carol Eckert.

Future

Student Council

ABSENT FROM PICTURE: Gene Bricker, Dick Dirham, and Bob Swingle—treosurer.

This group is composed of the president and one elected representative from each of the classes, and has the president of numerous other organizations and publications. The body helps to establish policy concerning student behavior and rules at the school, and sponsors after-game dances, Homecoming, and several other activities.

Y-Teens

Jeanne Barr, Deanne Curtice, Kay Whisler, Cheryl Johnson, Donna Kennedy, Beth Strong, Donna Chase, Joyce Talbott, Ales D'Amico, Barbara McGuire, Marcia Abrams and Doris Smith.

THIRD ROW: Tina Haight, Myrtle Brown, Ann Ellsworth, Barbara Standen, Alice White, Mary Lou Maupin, Jeanne Kubis, Henrietta Gayer, Marilyn Edwards, Diana Cowling,

Pat Foley, Carol Popiel, Linda Kolb, Joleen Fodor, Leah Wright, Janet Johnson, Sandy Siegfried, Pat Thomas, Peggy Black, Kathy Clement, Nancy Moxley, Rosalie McMillan, Nancy Quillen, Eleanor Carter, Nancy Belak, Verjean Duke, Barbara Wagner, Mary Searles, Joan Carlton, Jean Graff, and Elaine Preisler

FOURTH ROW: Becky Thomas, Peggy Carter, Janice Fodor, Sharole Seeley, Connie Kubis, Bette Blakslee, Judy Quick, Beverly Snanigan, Brenda Ribelin, Sue Gregory, Marianna Wassman, Eleanor Riffner, Joyce Roose, Brinca Patton, Karen Simon, and Nancy Lance.

This year the Y-Teens revamped their organizations so that now both groups are consolidated into one active club for this building. Meetings are held monthly at the Y-House. Many worthwhile activities were held—one of which was the annual Sweetheart Formal held March 2 in the gymnasium. Paul Lawrence's orchestra provided the music for dancing.

Queen Rosalie McMillan and attendants Barbara Wagner and Joan Carlton.

Dramatics Club

The main production of the Dramatics Club this year was "A Young Man's Fancy." Also, at regular meetings, several educational and entertaining programs were presented, covering various topics relative to dramatics, both on stage and back stage. The club's advisor is Mr. Insprucker, but Gil Davenport was the director of "A Young Man's Fancy." A one-act play with an all freshman cast was given for a junior high assembly in the spring.

Maurita Patry, Beth Strang, Kay Whisler, Becky Blanchard, Nancy Wass, Norma Sue Lehman, Jaleen Fadar, Sandy Siegfried, and Jeanne Barr.

Ann Gilsdorf, Martha Gillis, Barbara Standen, Linda Kalb, Julianne Kappelberger, Sharale Seeley, Diane Wilson, Janice Fadar, Priscilla Scott, Calleen Hill, and Jaan Carlton.

Diane Flynn, Barbara Veirs, Pat Faley, Bette Blakslee,

Nancy Quillen, Eleanor Riffner, Ann Ellswarth, Jeanne Kubis, Judy Dye, Pat Thamas, and Susie Twigg.

Tam Halden, Randy Raeper, Dick Dirham, Richard Rudes, Charles Rallings, Roger Canfield, Karl Matulin, Ken Kraus, Roger Casta, and Mike Slaan.

Thespians

Beth Strong, Dione Wilson, Joan Corlton, Ann Gilsdorf, and Barbora Standen.
SECOND ROW: Tam Halden, Susie Twigg, Janice Fodor, Noncy Quillen, Judy Dye, Jaleen Fadar, and Randy Raeper.

The Medina Senior High School chapter of the National Thespian Society is affiliated with Dramatics Club. Eligibility for joining this organization is obtained by earning ten Thespian points in the Dramatics Club. Thespian points can be earned by working either backstage or on stage for any play. This year, the Thespians teamed with the Dramatics Club, to produce three one-act plays for public performance. Each of these plays had separate casts, directors, and technical directors. The names of the plays were "High Window," "The Midnight Ghost," and "Boy Meets Family."

Medinamite

Did you ever stop to think where that school newspaper you get every so often comes from? Well, take a stroll up to room 203-A sometime. You would probably see a boy in the corner of the room who is tearing out his hair and biting his finger nails. He is known as the editor, and is Ben Mitchell. The bright young man cutting paper dolls and doing the Ubangi Stomp is the assistant editor, Tom Holden. Those people with the exceeding long noses are called reporters, and the faculty advisor is Robert Dague.

Jeanne Barr, Henrietta Gayer—Business Manager, Marilyn Edwards, Pat Frederick, Glorio Greene—Copy Editor, and Ales Ja D'Amica.

Spanish Club

Betty Miller, Nadine Morton, Jean Graff, Ann Ellsworth, Deanne Curtice, Norma Sue Lehman, Marcene Ewing, Christine Stuczynski, Marilyn Smith, and Beverly Carter.

SECOND ROW: Richard Kaszian, Barbara Veirs, Janet Miller, Margie Lutsch, Marilyn Edwards, Beverly Snanigan, Julianne Koppelberger, Judy Seamon, Judy Oberholtzer, Rita Armbruster, and Mrs. Ziegler.

Safety Promotors

Girls' Leaders Club

Marcia Abrams, Norma Sue Lehman, Barbara Standen, Deanne Curtice, Cheryl Kirk, Joan Carlton, Jaleen Fadar, Susie Twigg, Ann Gilsdorf, and Kay Whisler.
SECOND ROW: Janet Gaad, Frances DuPlaga, Diane Wilson, Judy Quick, Brinca Ja Patton, Miss Allen, Faculty Advisor, Rosalie McMillan, Ann Ellswarth, Janice Fadar, and Linda Kalb.

Leadership, sportsmanship, and personality are three of the criteria by which this organization's membership roll is filled. Dependability and scholarship are also considered along with ratings made by selected references. Girls' Leaders Club annually sponsors a banquet for the basketball squad; assembles weekly during the day, and has monthly "eating meetings"; and performs some benefit function each Christmas.

This handsome building could not have been built without the moral and financial support of the taxpayers. Neither could many of our student organizations continue without the cooperation and financial backing of the interested parents and merchants.

Let us introduce you to some of the cooperative business men of our community.
